Lucky Strike Bowling Alley

500 16th St. #340
303-629-9090

2003 was the end of an era for the iconic Hollywood Star Lanes, an institution that served Hollywood for 43 years and was home to the filming of "The Big Lebowski." In March, it was leveled to make way for a school. But just as the door to one icon closed, another opened. In April of that year, Lucky Strike debuted its first location in Hollywood. Wanting to pay homage to its predecessor, Lucky Strike purchased Lane #7 from Star Lanes and made it Lucky Strike Hollywood's bar. It's been good luck ever since. Ten years and multiple locations later Lucky Strike continues to roll its way across the country.

Staying for a few days before or after your workshop & rented a car during your time here? Check out these beautiful venues!

Red Rocks

18300 W. Alameda Parkway
Golden, CO 80401

Descending from green rolling hills, you'll find yourself smack dab in the middle of history. The beautiful and much-talked about rocks jut upwards to the sky and surround an amphitheatre which features talents from around the world. It's also been reviewed as a convenient and gorgeous hiking area, a geological wonder, provides unbeatable views of the city, and much more.

Georgetown

Offering a number of attractions from the Georgetown Loop Railroad, Hamill House, Hotel de Paris Museum, and Guanella Pass (a scenic and historic byway), Georgetown has something for everyone! A quaint, quiet town just off of I-70 and only an hour west of Denver, Georgetown is a nice escape, even if for only a few hours!

Estes Park

The quaint mountain town of Estes Park offers a wide variety of unique Rocky Mountain experiences. Whether you are looking for fine dining or down-home cooking, relaxation, or are curious and would love to learn more about the area, the Estes Park visitor's homepage has it all. Visit <http://estes-park.com/> to explore all of your options.
