

2016 New Greens

Available in Bullseye-compatible thin, double-rolled 3mm sheet, as well as powder, fine, medium and coarse frit styles. Additionally, Leaf Green (001217) and Light Mineral Green (001247) are available with iridescent coating.

| NAME                                                                                          |                                                                                    | WORKING NOTES                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | COMPARE                                                                                                      |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Leaf GreenTransparent/Iridescent001217Price code: C          |   | Contains copper. May react with selenium and sulfur to create a dark interface. FRIT: color will change when fired, especially small grain sizes, which will take on a blue-green hue. For color-sensitive projects, pre-test for color. | Fern Green 001207     |
| Lily Pad Green Transparent001226Price code: C                           |   | Contains copper. May react with selenium and sulfur to create a dark interface. FRIT: color will change when fired, especially small grain sizes, which will take on a blue-green hue. For color-sensitive projects, pre-test for color. | Pine Green 001241     |
| Medieval Green Transparent001242Price code: C                           |   | Contains copper. May react with selenium and sulfur to create a dark interface. FRIT: color will change when fired, especially small grain sizes, which will take on a blue-green hue. For color-sensitive projects, pre-test for color. | Pine Green 001241     |
| Light Mineral GreenTransparent/Iridescent001247Price code: C |  | Contains copper. May react with selenium and sulfur to create a dark interface. FRIT: color will change when fired, especially small grain sizes, which will take on a blue-green hue. For color-sensitive projects, pre-test for color. | Emerald Green 001417 |